

Inspiration Of Art Work

The designs found on the packaging of our herbal teas were influenced by Greek popular embroidery, both because it is so delightful and because we wanted to highlight their Greek origin. The style of the motifs now become lighter, more modern but still based on the same subject matter: plants, flowers, birds, in particular cockerels and peacocks, all reappear in many colours. The drawings of the plants accurately reflect the actual plants used in our blends.

